

Jamie L. McCauslin

Director of Business Operations

With an extensive background in finance management and software implementation, Jamie McCauslin came to SCD.USA, LLC in October 2007, just 2 months after its inception, as an Executive Assistant. Her tenacity to organize led to the establishment of the current corporate headquarters in Melbourne, FL in just 5 short months and elevated her to her current position of Director of Business Operations.

Due to her husband's military transfer, Jamie relocated to Florida from her hometown of St. Louis, MO, where she spent 10 years employed as Assistant and Manager of multiple financial and production implementation positions. Seven of these 10 years were served at Propper International Sales, Inc. in St. Charles, MO.

Currently a member of the Cambridge Who's Who, Jamie is also certified in ITAR/Export Compliance as well as heavily experienced in multiple accounting/ERP and computer operating systems. She is a contributing member of the Alpha Lambda Delta (National Honor Society) chapter at Lindenwood University, where she studied Business Administration with Emphasis in Accounting and Finance. She is currently working toward her MBA from the University of Phoenix.
